

Jayhawk

The jayhawk has been an unofficial Kansas symbol for many years. The word "jayhawk" was first used before the Civil War. Today a jayhawk is a person from Kansas. Artists draw this mythical bird with a red head, yellow bill and feet, and a blue body.